

On 8th March 2014, trumpeter extraordinaire Alison Balsom will be giving a gala concert in Faversham. Hailed as a performer with limitless potential (The Guardian), Alison is one of the finest trumpeters working today and has recently bagged the Gramophone ARTIST OF THE YEAR AWARD.

As part of this gala concert, award-winning composer, David Knotts will write a brand-new piece for brass ensemble which will be premiered by Alison alongside NINE OF THE COUNTY'S FINEST YOUNG BRASS PLAYERS. The selected performers will spend 2 consecutive Saturdays working with composer David Knotts and brass specialist, Kevin Abbott. They will also take part in a public masterclass with Alison Balsom and will rehearse and perform with her in the Gala Concert.

This is a Faversham Music Club youthworks initiative and is completely free for the nine selected musicians.
